

George Bairstow Charitable Trust

Newsletter 4

It has been a busy summer for GBCT, with the awarding of two new grants and three new appointments to the Trust over July and August. We are now all set to run into an active autumn as a number of our supporters don their running shoes in support of GBCT.

Read on to find out more about who GBCT has been supporting and to meet our new volunteers and quick moving fundraisers.

Where Next for Grants

GBCT's most recent grants support the provision of Emergency Aid. The Where Next Association, runs activities for those with severe learning disabilities. They received a grant to provide the first aid training to 27 of its staff and volunteers. The North Yorkshire village of Snainton are to receive a grant towards the cost of a new Community Public Access Defibrillator. Read more about the grants at www.gbct.org.uk/news.

Trust in Ian

The GBCT are delighted to appoint Ian Cressey as a new Trustee. Ian and George were close friends at Durham University. Ian has been supporting the Trust over several months with communication and fundraising initiatives.

First for First Aid

The Trust are taking a big step forwards in the delivery of First Aid projects. Kat Stoner (left) has been appointed to the role of First Aid Outreach Coordinator, ably supported by Dr Mel Watson (right). Both knew George through St John Ambulance and bring a wealth of training and first aid experience to the role.

Running into Autumn

We have several enthusiastic runners taking part in events this autumn to fundraise for GBCT. We will be cheering on Chris Monk, James Grant and Laura Gilbert. To find out more about the runners or to support them, visit www.gbct.org.uk/news.

About the Trust

The Trust aims to empower local communities to make a difference, by supporting:

- The provision of Emergency Aid
- Volunteering among young people
- The enhancement of skills among young people

Visit www.gbct.org.uk/about to find out more.

Empowering communities to make a difference

Emergency Aid

Skills

Volunteering